ST. PETER'S ARTISANS | NEW GALLERY WALL EXHIBIT!

The St. Peter's Artisan Wall features artwork created by inmates at the Gadsden Re-Entry Center in Quincy, Florida. The Gadsden Re-Entry Center is the last stop before the men are returned to life outside. It is one of only 4 re-entry centers in Florida and the only one that is not attached to another facility. Artwork is a form of therapy and expression for the inmates.

Gadsden Re-Entry Center's intention is always to reform the inmates, let them come out of their wrongdoings, and be a valuable part of society. The core programs at the facility are more behavior-therapeutic than a traditional prison. Inmates at Gadsden Re-Entry Center participate in religious-based services, and community-building projects, and recently started an art ministry. In addition to the therapeutic services offered, the inmates also receive education classes, vocational training, parenting classes, life skills training, and employment coaching.

As you admire the artwork, we invite you to pause and pray for the hands that created it with the Prayer for Prisoners from the Book of Common Prayer that is displayed with the pieces. Most of the artwork that is displayed on the artisan wall is available for purchase with all proceeds going to the re-entry facility. Each piece has a card with a suggested donation on it. If you are interested in purchasing a piece please take the card, fill out the back side of it with your name and what you would like to donate, and put the card in the envelope provided near the elevator.
