

PRISON MINISTRY

Jason White | Missions & Evangelism Prison Core Co-Captain

One of my favorite social media images is one of a person washing another's feet. We know this story in John 13, where Jesus washed the feet of his Disciples. The best part of this internet-generated image is the following statement:

“Jesus knew Judas’ heart, and still washed his feet.”

Engaging in Prison Ministry is a deeply fulfilling and meaningful experience, that brings joy and satisfaction to you and inmates alike. It is an opportunity to serve individuals who are often marginalized and forgotten by society, offering them hope, redemption, and the transformative power of faith. Regardless of their crimes, Jesus knows their hearts too and awaits the opportunity to redeem them.

Jesus instructed his followers to come to the imprisoned (Matthew 25:36). Likewise, your faith is impacted when you are witness to the transformation that can occur within the lives of the imprisoned. Charles Colson said many times that you do not end the cycle of criminal behavior with punishment, but instead with love. Many individuals in prison have experienced profound brokenness, trauma, and poor life choices. The message of Christ's love can help turn them away from a life of crime, addiction, and despair towards a path of redemption, hope, and faith.

Moreover, this ministry challenges you to extend grace and forgiveness even in the face of wrongdoing. It fosters empathy and compassion as you interact with individuals who have made mistakes but are seeking a second chance. Prison Ministry allows you to deepen your understanding of forgiveness, redemption, and the capacity for life alteration.

If you embark on this ministry, you will work alongside fellow volunteers who share your passion for making a difference. Together, you form a support team that encourages and uplifts one another, knowing that the work you do is challenging but vital. This sense of camaraderie and shared purpose can be a source of immense satisfaction.

If you're interested in breaking the cycle of crime and incarceration and contributing to safer communities and stronger families, I urge you to give this ministry a chance. By providing inmates with the tools to successfully reintegrate into society, you can play a role in reducing recidivism rates. This not only benefits the individuals you serve but also has a positive effect on society as a whole.

At St. Peter's, we have several different opportunities to be involved in Prison Ministry. Members are actively involved in Kairos weekend teams across the panhandle, Celebrate Recovery Inside teams, Prison Fellowship Academy, remote mentorship through CrossRoads Ministries, as well as involvement in numerous re-entry offerings in the area. We are also looking for more involvement with the Women's Federal Facility on Capital Circle. I ask you to prayerfully consider joining a team. ## ST. PETER'S ARTISANS | NEW GALLERY WALL EXHIBIT!

The St. Peter's Artisan Wall features artwork created by inmates at the Gadsden Re-Entry Center in Quincy, Florida. The Gadsden Re-Entry Center is the last stop before the men are returned to life outside. It is one of only 4 re-entry centers in Florida and the only one that is not attached to another facility. Artwork is a form of therapy and expression for the inmates.

Gadsden Re-Entry Center's intention is always to reform the inmates, let them come out of their wrongdoings, and be a valuable part of society. The core programs at the facility are more behavior-therapeutic than a traditional prison. Inmates at Gadsden Re-Entry Center participate in religious-based services, and community-building projects, and recently started an art ministry. In addition to the therapeutic services offered, the inmates also receive education classes, vocational training, parenting classes, life skills training, and employment coaching.

As you admire the artwork, we invite you to pause and pray for the hands that created it with the Prayer for Prisoners from the Book of Common Prayer that is displayed with the pieces. Most of the artwork that is displayed on the artisan wall is available for purchase with all proceeds going to the re-entry facility. Each piece has a card with a suggested donation on it. If you are interested in purchasing a piece please take the card, fill out the back side of it with your name and what you would like to donate, and put the card in the envelope provided near the elevator.
