

Welcome! Whether this is your first time at St. Peter's Cathedral, you've been here since the beginning, or it's simply been awhile—we're so glad to be worshipping our Lord Jesus Christ with you during this Christmas season!

As Anglicans, our pattern of worship is shaped both by Scripture and the tradition of the Church through the centuries. We strive to reach Tallahassee and the world with the transforming love of Jesus Christ. In worship, discipleship, and mission—hospitably, humbly, and faithfully—we seek to lead the Gulf Atlantic Diocese and the whole Anglican movement forward. If you aren't already, we would be delighted for you to become a regular part of our cathedral family in the days, weeks, and months ahead!

WANT TO LEARN MORE?

Visit our website and look around to see where God might be nudging you to plug in. Whether it's working within one of our 8 Missions & Evangelism Cores, our Parish Life Hospitality teams, Men's & Women's Ministries, Children's, Youth, and Family Ministries, or simply taking a class, there is a place for YOU to belong here at St. Peter's and with any of our various ministry partners throughout our community, region, and the world.

While our normal weekly schedule may be found on the back of your service bulletin, the next few Sundays look a little different in order to give our staff and clergy a brief respite from the hustle and bustle of this busy season. You'll find more details in the announcement below this note.

DURING THIS CHRISTMAS SEASON, "may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." –Romans 15:13

Once again, welcome to our Cathedral, thank you for worshipping with us, and...

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

The Very Rev'd Marcus A. Kaiser, Sr.
Dean & Rector
